PERSONAL.

Chas. Brother, of Lexington, was here Sunday.

Windsor Letton, of Paris, was here the past week.

Mrs. M. Jones returned last week from Bloomington, Ill.

James L. Stephens visited friends at Flemingsburg Sunday.

Rev. M. Fuqua, of Georgetown, came Tuesday to visit friends.

Slings Underwood, of Minnesota, is visiting friends at Wyoming.

Horace Lane and wife visited relatives in Mt. Sterling last week.

Mrs. Albee Perry and Miss Linda Allen were in Mt. Sterling Tuesday.

Mrs. J. H. Taulbee returned Monday from a visit at Mt. Sterling and Lexington.

Charles Rankin, of Covington, visited James K. Eumois Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. W. Ray Patterson has returned home to Winchester, after a visit to Mrs. Belle Allen.

Jose Turney, of Paris, and Joshua Owens, Sr., of Lexington, were here on business Friday.

James M. Estill and wife, of Switzerland, Ky., relatives, returned home last Sunday.

J. M. Teal and Ed L. Teal, of Farmers, were in town on business Wednesday last week.

Mrs. Henry T. Hopkins returned home last week from a visit to Miss Cora Sevier, at Barboursville.

Miss Mattie Ewing returned Friday from a visit to her sister Mrs. Kittie Lyons, at Surgoinsville, Tenn.

Mrs. Pierce Winn, of Mt. Sterling, was here last week with her mother, Mrs. Elva Catlett, who was ill.

J. T. Ellington and C. D. Davis, of the Ragland oil fields, were pleasant callers at this office Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. A. M. May (nee Addie Stewart), of Manchester, Tenn., is visiting her parents, Robert Stewart and wife, near Reynoldsville.

E. H. Brother went to Lexington and Cincinnati this week and later took Mrs. Brother to visit S. S. Pinney and wife, at Rothwell.

Miss Jennie Elliott expects to go Saturday to Knoxville, Tenn., to visit John Richards and his mother, Mrs. Sallie Richards.

Mrs. James A. Barnes went to Ashland last week and met her brother Geo. Gault, who has been sick at Holden, W. Va., and accompanied him home to her mother Mrs. Melissa Gault, at Ashland.

Mrs. Barnes returned home, she reports Geo. improving in health.

Born, Saturday night, to Philip Fleming and wife, of upper Prickly Ash, a daughter.

DIED SUDDENLY.—A telegram from Lexington Wednesday morning announced the sudden death there of Mrs. M. D. Faris.

The sole of the personality of the late James Thomas Atchison, on lower State Creek, Saturday was a very successful one, everything bringing the top of the market.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCEMENT.—The following marriage announcement will be made this week: "Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thompson invite you to be present at the marriage of their daughter Fannie Lloyd to Forrest Willery Thursday evening, November twenty-fourth, nineteen hundred and five, at ten o'clock, at home, Grange City, Kentucky."

"SOLD THEIR MOLLS"—The demand for mules on Tuesday of last week was rarely ever better. It is said that fourteen dollars was the top price except where a man would take a mule for his services; one instance of the kind is alleged. Evidently the Democratic mule drovers were the keenest traders, though it is said that both parties had all the money they wished to spend.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—S. M. Parcell learned that sparks from a Big Four railway locomotive on Sunday evening destroyed all of the summer resort town of Aetion Park, twelve miles from Indianapolis, except the hotel and band stand. Some hundreds of families are there in summer. Mrs. Parcell lost a residence with contents, worth $1,000, partially insured.

BIBLE INSTITUTE.—The Bible Institute will begin on Wednesday night before Thanksgiving day at Hazel Green Academy and continue over the following Sunday. Its sessions will be most interesting and helpful to all. We want ministers, church and Sunday-school officers and workers to attend. All who attend will be entertained free of any expense. Wm. H. Conner.

COURT DAY.—Monday was cool, but a large crowd came to the monthly market. The merchants had a very good trade. The mule market is said to have been a little bit better even than it was last Court day. Good cattle were in demand at fair prices, but common stuff was at the lowest. There were about 125 cattle offered. The best 2-year-olds sold at $150.

Among the rare stock sales were: T. B. Brown sold to Ewing County three yearling steers at $18.25 per head; two heifers to Chas. Vio at $17.25 per head; two 2-year-old steers to Curran Crouch at $25 per head; two calves to James McCall at $10 each.

Geo. Young sold a stag and a cow to B. L. Berry at $250 per lb. Chandler & Stone sold ten 550-lb. good heifers to Pete Hart at $17 per head; six 525-lb. short yearlings to I. B. Darrell at $16.00; three 600-lb. heifers to Hub Duggan at $16.00 per lb. Warner & Williams sold twelve 570-lb. yearling steers to Bud Myers at $13.10 per lb.

Wm. Warner sold a pair of mules to Bert McClintock for $285. Geo. Goodpastor bought of George Donahoe a pair of cycles for $335. Lee Powers sold a pair of 2-year-old mules for $275.

The hunters were out after the birds and rabbits Wednesday, the opening day of the game season.

It is estimated that $15,000's worth of turkeys were sold in the territory tributary to this town in the past two weeks.

Judge H. Clay McKee, ex-Democrat, of Mt. Sterling, is out for the Republican Congressional nomination in the 10th district.

Major J. M. Brother, of the Bath Co. Election Board, says the successful candidates at the late election will find their certificates ready for them at the County Clerk's office.

MAY BE SMALLPOX.—The three-year-old daughter of James Gregory, near Wyoming, was taken with an eruptive disease, and Drs. A. W. Walden and W. E. Phillips were unable after an examination Monday to definitely decide whether it had chickenpox or smallpox. Smallpox is said to be prevalent at Nepton, Fleming county. Dr. Walden says the case is suspicious at least.

BEAT HIM TO IT.—James H. Atchison, of Lexington, while on a visit last week to his brother-in-law O. P. Shrout, at Moore's Ferry, went down to the Shrout Pond and shot a duck one day last week. The duck being on the opposite side of the pond he went around the end of the pond to get it, but when he got to the place an old man said to have been an otter, had the duck and dived out of sight with it, not appearing again. Otters have been seen before in this pond.

OFFICIAL ELECTION MAJORITIES.—The vote cast at the election Nov. 7 was about an average one in this county, probably amounting to about 3,200. The official majorities are as follows: W. A. Young 145.

J. W. Lane 674, Leslie Shrout 635, Caleb Ratliff 602, Samuel T. Jones 150, H. S. Goodpastor 205, W. D. Bailey 509, Miss Pickett 1,000.

For Amendment to Constitution 80. There were 468 votes for the Amendment and 388 against it.

IN FLEMING COUNTY.—The Democratic ticket in Fleming county was all elected except two: W. M. Wilt, Republican, defeated J. D. Wyatt for Representative and Miss Annie Six defeated Lee N. Hull for School Superintendent. Wilt is editor of the Flemingsburg Gazette and Wyatt of the Register. Wyatt has also served as County Judge.

Wilt's election was due to the disaffected Democrats, who disapproved of the manner in which Wyatt had given the name of the county to the County Commission.

THE JAIL.—A man who was in the jail last week, and who had a large amount of liberty.

The negroes are making $3 a day and their board, and are as happy as larks. The jail is small and was already almost full when they were sentenced. It happened that there were several negroes awaiting trial for misdemeanors committed in various parts of the county.
